Notable Achievements by GACC Members in June

1. Lee Nightingale continues his stellar play at Cedar Creek, consistently beating his age and scoring a 74 last month which included an eagle on #6 and a couple of birdies. We won't talk about the bogeys though!
2. Chuck Kenney recorded an 85 at an Aiken Seniors tournament at Golden Hills, winning his flight and scoring a logo shirt for his efforts. For those of you who know this course, Chuck parred #10 (a Par 4 slight dogleg right with water in play in front of a green guarded by woods long and right)!
3. Alan Kundtz recorded an 86 during a match played in the GACC Match Play tournament (Losers Bracket), his best round of the season. Not bad for an 18 handicapper....
4. Since turning 65, Peter Srednicki has shot his age at least once every season. He achieved the latest triumph by carding a 77 while vacationing in the Panama City Beach area. Way to go!!
5. Andrew Wilson recorded a pair of 77s at Cedar Creek, 10 days apart. Unknown whether these scores mean he shot his age (or better), but a great performance, nonetheless.
6. Eric Sliger reeled off eight straight pars on his way to a nice round. Pretty impressive feat!
